EXPERIENCE THE FREIBURG FEELING!

LANGE ROTE SAUSAGE

The smallest Freiburg emblem can be found right next to the largest: the Münsterwurst (sausage) – also known as the “Lange Rote” – can be found in front of the cathedral at the farmer’s market between Monday and Saturday. An absolute must for any visit to Freiburg!

FREIBURG CANALS

The “Bächle” or canals run through the old town and it is impossible to imagine Freiburg without them. They used to serve as canals for fire-fighting water, among other things. Today, the “Bächle” are a refreshing cool-off for young and old in the summer – but be careful: according to the legend, anyone who takes a dip will marry a Freiburg citizen!

MOSAICS

It is also worth taking a look down! Ever since the 19th century, the entrances to many houses have been decorated with rhinestone mosaics, whether it is town seals, guild/business signs or cultural motifs. It is definitively a different kind of a photo spot!

PICNIC SPOTS

Just take a break: There are numerous sunny and shady spots in Freiburg for you to catch your breath and enjoy the day. Benches and green sitting areas can be found in the Stadtgarten (Municipal Park), on the Schlossberg (Castle Mountain), Dreisam River or Lake Flückiger and in many other parks!

FRELO BIKE RENTAL

Freiburg is a biking city! It is a great idea to push the pedals and discover the city on two wheels. Our tip: The bike rental system, Frelo, allows you to pedal from one part of the city to the next using its renting stations.
